

I pay extra on my phone bill for an "unlisted" telephone number and still received calls from telemarketers. Since joining the Do Not Call List, the calls are next to nil. This is my telephone number that I pay for and my personal right to not want to be disturbed. Let companies solicit business through the mail, the newspapers, television, radio, etc - the sources that I do not pay for with my hard earned money! Thank you for your time.